

Unit 7 Sample Dialogue 2

Student Name: _____

Role: Customer

Situation: The cashier has given you the total for your purchase.
You must pay the clerk enough money to pay for your purchase.
Name your bills and coins as you give the money to the cashier.
Do not pay with exact change.

Role: Cashier

Situation: You have just added up the total price of a customer's purchase.
You must tell the customer the total price and then take his/her money.
Count back the change to your customer.

Sample:

A: I want to buy this shirt please.

B: Okay.

A: How much does it cost?

B: That shirt costs $35.59. This one is on sale for $23.99. Which shirt are you going to buy?

A: I only have $30.00, so I have to buy the shirt that is on sale.

B: Here you are. Your total is $25.91.

A: Here is $30.00.

B: Your change is $4.09. Thank you.

A: You're welcome. Bye.

B: Have a nice day.
